God's way of Worship OR Human's way of Worship?

By David Cariaga

Today's generation is a generation of change. A generation of men and women who performs something different. They choose to worship God in their own way and still claim to have rendered a valid worship. They accuse the New Testament worship as boring and not uplifting. They follow a pattern that is obviously not God's pattern but their own human standards . But what did the Bible say?

God expects us today to worship Him according to the instructions of Jesus and His apostles in the New Testament. Do all churches today worship alike? Then what should we be looking for in a church? The answer: one who worships according to Scripture and not by the creeds of men.

The New Testament church did the following things is their public worship:

- (1) Observed the Lord's Supper on the first day of the week as Christ commanded. (Mt.26:26-29; 1Cor.11:23-26; Ac.2:42; 20:7.)
- (2) Preached and taught the Word of God. (Ac.2:42; 1Thess.1:8.)
- (3) Prayed. (Ac.2:42.)
- (4) Sang. (Eph.5:19; Col.3:16.)
- (5) Gave on the first day of the week. (1Cor.16:1-2.)

If a religious group doesn't do these things in worship or adds human traditions not authorized by God, then you know that group is in error and worshipping improperly. We should take it seriously because Jesus condemned beliefs and actions that are contrary to His standard. (Please read Mt.15:1-14; Gal.1:8-9; 2Thess.2:10-12.)

I saw someone bored and sleepy during the worship. He prefers dancing, clapping, jumping and all mechanical instruments should be accompanied in singing and even in praying. One time he said, he prefers singing only and not listen to the word of God. All instructions seem to be useless and only his desire should be followed.

The question is, why do we need to change God's command? If we claim to be an obedient child of God, why not sincerely follow His command? Are the New Testament instructions given not enough? If we are looking outside of what is instructed to us, then we are not following God's command. Matthew 15:8-9 says, "These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men."

I would like to encourage you to stay close to Jesus and follow His commandments. Since we claim that we are true followers of Christ, let us sincerely follow his word, so our hopes and dreams to be with God in heaven, will not be in vain.

Romans 16:16

Salute one another with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ salute you.
