Strong Bible Foundation Starts at a Very Early Age
By David Cariaga

Children hear the Lord easier than anyone else. The most common blockage that children encounter is the unbelief of the parents and children's leaders. The earlier you expect a child to sense God's presence and voice, the less likely you are to shut down their spiritual eyes and ears. Our greatest responsibility as parents and children's leaders is to lead the children into an intimate friendship with God, which includes teaching children how to recognize and respond to the voice of God.

Why Teach Kids to Hear God's Voice ?They can have friendship with God (the most important thing!) God can help them make decisions (imagine if kids could avoid the mistakes YOU made!) They can be used by God to minister to others including hearing God, which is really more for demonstrating God's power in the world than it is for spicing up our church services. For children to move in a pure, undiluted gospel of power, they must learn to hear God's voice. How Does God Speak? His Word- the Bible, through preachers, and through parents who are guided by the word.

Clearly hearing God's voice can save us from some serious missteps in our daily Christian walk. Jesus told his disciples, "My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me." John 10:27 (NIV) What an encouraging verse, but how can we achieve good spiritual hearing? These are the things needed to do:

First, "be swift to hear." I must admit in the age where texting and social media is the prevalent form of communication, really learning to sit down and hear someone out is a passing characteristic trait. This being "swift to hear" is not for one who is running to hear gossip of others. Rather, it is the ability to stay focused in a conversation where another can unload a burden; where another can trust you to be their confidant in the time of trouble.

Secondly, we are commanded to "be slow to speak." If you've ever been in the midst of one of those conversations where the other person is always jumping in and cutting you off, you know how it can put you off. Proverbs 21:23 reminds us, "Whoso keepeth his mouth and his tongue keepeth his soul from troubles." Many of the misunderstandings that occur between people is because the right words were not spoken at the right time, rather the wrong words were spoken at the wrong time.

Lastly, this verse admonishes us to be "slow to wrath." Proverbs 14:29 tells us, "He that is slow to wrath is of great understanding: but he that is hasty of spirit exalteth folly." The one with a quick temper shows his/her lack of self-control. Oh, how easy it is to let loose and lash out. But, what great strength is shown in the one who doesn't.
