SIMPLY FOLLOW JESUS

By David Cariaga

Many people have a false sense of security in many things in this world today. Christians are not exempted to these struggles and they find security in their finances; security in their accomplishments and education; security in their relationships or social status', titles and the like. Many place too much value and importance on the non-relevant things of life while their soul remains in danger. This thing that is happening is not new.

Even in the Old Testament, Jeremiah the Prophet said in chapter 7:9-10 (NIV)

9 "Will you steal and murder, commit adultery and perjury,[a] burn incense to Baal and follow other gods you have not known, 10 and then come and stand before me in this house, which bears my Name, and say, "We are safe"—safe to do all these detestable things?"

Like all the prophets, Jeremiah didn't write in a vacuum: his was a message from the Lord and for people at a specific time and place, and under specific circumstances.

And yet, however radically different his circumstances were from ours or from those of the many other generations who have read Jeremiah, crucial principles expressed there are the same for God's people in every generation.

It is so sad that many invest over and over again in these, hoping to find some semblance of safety. Jesus once wisely said, "For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?" (Mark 8:36).

It is so comforting to followers of Christ that we see that the only place of true safety and security is found in the will of God. God will keep those who cleave unto Him; who hold fast to His Word. Corrie ten Boom is quoted as saying, "There are no 'ifs' in God's world. And no places that are safer than other places. The center of His will is our only safety – let us pray that we may always know it!" (Goodreads).
